

Michael Hungerford
Partner, Hungerford Group

As a fifth generation Vancouverite, Michael Hungerford is passionate about the community and people of Vancouver. A Partner at Hungerford Group, Michael oversees a diversified real estate company, engaged in the development, marketing, and management of investment grade properties across B.C. An impressive portfolio of development spans markets in Vancouver, Burnaby, Richmond, and Whistler in the residential, industrial, and retail sectors. Prior to a career in real estate development, Michael was part of the original team of a successful Silicon Valley software company eGain Communications (NASDAQ: EGAN) where over the course of 6 years, Michael was responsible for the company's sales, marketing, and strategic development. Prior to Michael's entrepreneurial venture in software, he lived and worked in China for two years in the Telecommunications field. Michael holds a Bachelor's Degree from Queen's University in Political Science, and a Masters of Business Administration from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business. Michael has always felt strongly about community service and aside from numerous volunteer roles, is involved on the Board of Directors for the BC Cancer Foundation, and Chairs the Weekend to End Breast Cancer. Michael lives with wife Jennifer in the historic Bloomfield House in Mount Pleasant.
