

Louvre Hotel

Built in 1889, the building took the Louvre name in 1897 with its manager promoting the only circular bar in the province and suggested customers “call in and lubricate.” Today, the same building encourages and sustains locals in a different way. Gospel Mission - founded in 1929 - has occupied the former Louvre Hotel since the 1940s.

